The Church Where "Where Everybody is Somebody"

While Jesus was at Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at the table, a women came with an alabaster jar of very costly ointment of nard, and she broke open the jar and poured the ointment on his head.

Mark 14:3

Daily Prayers Dissolve Your Cares

Enter into my heart, Lord, for it is all yours. I cannot hide from you. You know me and you have called me. Thank you. Amen

Thought for the Month

Where am I holding back a part of myself from Christ?

-With Open Hearts-

I've heard this scripture many times, but when a young man from our church, used it in a sermon, I saw a new way. In his analysis, he stressed the verb break, alluding to the woman who broke the alabaster jar of costly ointment. The issue was not to keep the precious perfume but rather to pour the ointment on the Master. Then the young man asked an important question: Have we opened our heart to give all to the Lord, or have we kept some part for ourselves for our own satisfaction?

After breaking the alabaster jar, this woman could keep the perfume. Likewise, when we come to the feet of Jesus Christ, we should not hold back anything. God desires that we open our hearts to the Savior totally, leaving behind what is negative and unworthy and allowing Christ to dwell in us.

Take time to work,
It is the price of success.
Take time to think,
It is the source of power.
Take time to play,
It is the secret of perpetual youth.
Take time to read,
It is the foundation of wisdom.
Take time to be friendly,
It is the road to happiness.
Take time to love and be loved,
It is the privilege of the gods.
Take time to share,
Life is too short to be selfish.
Take time to laugh,
Laughter is the music of the soul.

Have joyous St. Patrick's Day.

Little Johnny's Corner

Johnny and Heaven

The Sunday school teacher asked his class if I sold my house and my car, had a big garage sale and gave all my money to the church, would I get into Heaven? Little Sally answered, No!

If I cleaned the church every day, mowed the yard and kept everything neat and tidy, would I get into Heaven? Again little Henry answered, No!

The teacher then asked, how can I get into Heaven? Little Johnny shouted out, you gotta be dead, teacher!

Can you find 16 books of the Bible?

I once made a remark about the hidden books of the Bible. It was a lulu. Kept people looking so hard for the facts and for some others it was a revelation. Some were in a jam, especially since the name of the books were not capitalized, but the truth finally stuck home to numbers of readers. To others it was a real job. We want it to be a most fascinating few moments for you. Yes, there will be some really easy to spot. Others may require judges to help them. I will quickly admit it usually takes a minister to find one of them, and there will be loud lamentation when it is found. A little lady says she brews a cup of tea, so she can concentrate better, see how well you can compete. Relax now for there really are sixteen books of the Bible in this story. (One preacher found 15 books in 20 minutes, but it took him 3 week to find the sixteenth one!).
